COOKIES NOTIFICATION BANNER

This website uses cookies, both its' own and those of third parties, to collect statistical information about your browsing usage and show you advertising related to your preferences, generated from your browsing patterns. If you continue on surfing, we will consider you are in acceptance of its use. More information here.

BACKGROUND

In accordance with Spanish regulations governing the use of cookies in relation to the Provision of Electronic Communications Services, set out in the Spanish Royal Decree Law 13/2012 of March 30, we inform you about the cookies used on the website of GABRIEL MONTAÑES ALBERTI (also the provider) and the reason for its use. Likewise, this informs you that by browsing the Website you are giving your consent to use them.

WHAT ARE COOKIES?

A cookie is a file that is downloaded to your computer when you access certain web pages. Cookies allow a web page, among other things, to store and retrieve information about the browsing habits of a user or their equipment and, depending on the information they contain and the way they use their equipment, they can be used to remember a user. Cookies are only associated with an anonymous user and their computer or device and do not provide references that allow accessing their personal data.

COOKIES AFFECTED BY REGULATIONS AND EXEMPT COOKIES

In accordance to EU directive, cookies that require informed consent by the user are analytical cookies and advertising and affiliation cookies, except those of a technical nature and those necessary for the operation of the website or the provision of services expressly demanded by the user.

TYPES OF COOKIES

a) Depending on the entity that manages them, there are innate Cookies (those that are sent to the user's terminal equipment from a computer or domain managed by the publisher itself and from which the service requested by the user is provided) and from third parties (those that are sent to the user's terminal equipment from a computer or domain that is not managed by the editor, but by another entity that processes the data obtained through cookies).

b) Depending on the time they remain active, there are session cookies (designed to collect and store data while the user accesses a web page) and persistent cookies (in which the data is stored in the terminal and can be accessed and processed during a period defined by the person in charge of cookies (lasting from a few minutes to several years).

c) Depending on the purpose for which they manage the information they collect, they can be:

- Technical cookies (necessary for the use of the website and the provisions of the contracted service)

- Personalization cookies (that allows the User to access the service with predefined features, such as language, browser type, regional configuration, etc.)

- Analysis cookies (information collected on the use made carried out through the website)

- Advertising cookies (they collect information about preferences and personal choices of Users)

- Affiliate cookies (they allow to track visits incomming from other websites, with which the website establishes an affiliation contract)

TYPES OF COOKIES USED BY THIS WEBSITE

The cookies used on our website are session and third-party cookies, and allow us to store and access information related to the language, the type of browser used, and other general characteristics predefined by the User, as well as tracking and analyzing the activity carried out to improve and provide our services in a more efficient and personalized way. The cookies used have, in any case, a temporary nature, with the sole purpose of making browsing more efficient. In no case do these cookies provide by themselves personal data and are not used for the collection of aforementioned data.

The use of cookies offers advantages, such as:

- facilitating user navigation and access to the different services offered by this website

- avoids users having to configure the predefined general characteristics each time they access the website.

- granting improvements of the functions and of the services provided through this website, resulting from the corresponding analysis of the information obtained through the installed cookies

When accessing our website you are informed that if you continue browsing, several third-party cookies will be installed, thus allowing the installation of certain cookies that will have the sole purpose of registering access to our website for the compilation of anonymous statistics about visits, always collecting information anonymously. It is not mandatory to accept the installation of these cookies; you can browse through our website regardless.

In various sections of our website you can install social network cookies, specifically the following:

• Twitter cookies, according to the provisions of its privacy policy and the use of cookies.

• Facebook cookies, according to the provisions of its cookies policy.

• LinkedIn cookies, according to the provisions of its page on the use of cookies.

• Google+ cookies and Google Maps cookies, according to the provisions on their page about what kind of cookies they use.

These browsers are subject to updates or modifications, so we can't guarantee that they comply fully with your browser version. It may also be that you use another browser not included in these links such as Konqueror, Arora, Flock, etc. To avoid these mismatches, you can access the Cookies configuration directly from the options of your browser, usually in the "Options" menu in the "Privacy" section. (Please see the help of your browser for more information).

DESACTIVATION / ACTIVATION AND ELIMINATION OF COOKIES

The restriction or blockage of cookies, is usually modified through the browser settings. If you do not want websites to place any cookies on your computer, you can adapt your browser settings so that you are notified before any cookies are placed. Similarly, you can adapt the configuration so that the browser rejects either all cookies or only third-party cookies. You can also delete any of the cookies that are already on the computer. Keep in mind that you will have to adapt the configuration of each browser and equipment you use separately.

Please note that if you choose not to receive cookies, we can no longer guarantee that our website will work properly. Some site features may be lost and you may no longer be able to see certain websites. Also, rejecting cookies does not mean that you are not going to see advertisements. The ads will simply not fit your interests and will be repeated more frequently.

Each browser has a different method to adapt cookies configurations. If necessary, consult the browser's help function to establish the correct settings.

To disable cookies on your mobile phone, check the device manual for more information.

You can get more information about cookies on the following Internet website: http://www.aboutcookies.org/.

Taking into account the way in which the Internet and websites work, we do not always have information on the cookies placed by third parties through our website. This especially applies to cases in which our website contains what are commonly called integrated elements: texts, documents, images or short films that are stored elsewhere, but are displayed on our website or through it.

Therefore, if you encounter this type of cookies on this website and which are not listed in the above list, please inform us. Or contact the third party directly to request information about the cookies they may place, the purpose and duration of the cookie, and how your privacy has been guaranteed.
